

USEA Mission Statement

US Empowerment Agency

The Mission of the USEA is:

- to provide knowledge and take action to ensure the national security of the United States in respect to empowered abilities
- to provide empowered assistance to federal, state, local, and international agencies
- to provide the scientific foundation, technology, policy and institutional leadership necessary to achieve efficiency in peaceful use of empowered abilities
- and to perform these responsibilities in a manner that is responsive to the needs of the public and is faithful to the Constitution of the United States

MISSION

AWARENESS – Identify and understand threats, assess vulnerabilities, determine potential impacts, and disseminate timely information to our homeland security partners and the American public.

PREVENTION – Detect, deter, and mitigate threats to our homeland.

PROTECTION – Safeguard our people and their freedoms, critical infrastructure, property, and the economy of our Nation from acts of empowered humans or other emergencies.

RESPONSE – Lead, manage, and coordinate the national response to acts of empowered humans.

DISCOVERY - Analyze, explore and develop empowered abilities for the benefit of our Nation and mankind in general.

ORGANIZATIONAL EXCELLENCE – Value our most important resource, our people. Create a culture that promotes a common identity, innovation, mutual respect, accountability, and teamwork to achieve efficiencies, effectiveness, and operational synergies.

VALUES

INTEGRITY - Our mission requires complete personal integrity and personal courage, physical and intellectual.

ZEAL - We accomplish things others cannot, often at great risk. When the stakes are highest and the dangers greatest, we are there and there first.

TEAMWORK - We stand by one another and behind one another. Service, sacrifice, flexibility, teamwork, and quiet patriotism are our hallmarks.
